SPEECH OF LORD NAPIER.-Lord Napier, the English Minister, attended the St. George din- lars. ner in New York, last week, and made a speech, from a report of which we quote as follows:

Gentlemen, I do not wish to say anything unduly and ungratefully depreciatory of any country or of any Government. I have had some experience of despotic Governments. I have lived in Naples, in Turkey, and in Russia. Gen tlemen, there are elements of happiness in them all. Fortunately, I say, there are elements of kindness, of culture and of happiness which no political system whatever can exclude from the race of nature and from the hearts of men.
[Loud cheers.] But, gentlemen, neither the retrospective glories of the Italian scene, nor the ancient repose and the picturesque associations of oriental life, nor the splendid enchantments of social life which have arisen in their most agreeable form upon the margin of the Neva, can ever make an Englishman undervalue or forget those principles of freedom, which have been cherished by our common fathers at home, and which by them were sown broadcast npon the soil of the great American continent.

Why Don't They Stick to the Issue?

Since the Know-Nothing State Council has vulged, the people will be enabled to see how resolved that Americanism must have prece these intense Americans have fulfilled the great dence, and since we were informed that the mission they assumed under such lofty promises. American party was defeated because Americanism was lost sight of, and all that was need ed for a triumph was to stick to the issue, we have observed the organs, to see how they would deport themselves. We believe they have all forgotten, and we hereby call their attention to the subject. The Council resolved on allowing a free expression of opinion; we presume, outside of Americanism; and the organs seem to avail themselves of the privilege thus granted; but they ought to recollect the Council also re solved that Americanism should have prece dence. We have a right, then, to demand of the brethren that they keep Americanism in front, and not be making an eternal fuss about Utah, about squatter sovereignty, &c. What has Americanism to do with these sub jeets? The free expression allowed, gives them a chance to take any side of such questions Americanism does not require them to be foreverrailing at Utah, or at squatter sovereignty They are none the better Americans for their rope equal to that of the Millerite excitementiu opposition to these things. They might defend this country. The following extract from a Brigham Young and squatter sovereignty, and private letter written last November, which we still be "sound on the goose." They can support Mr. eal influence which may explain the singula Buchanan's administration when it does not touch Americanism; and, by the way, they had better do it if they desire to be in good company. They can do so without transgressing the system. It will be attracted by the sun, and law they have laid down. Why are they running off after irrelevant things, and always taking the wrong side? We don't profess to know farmers, about the speed of horses and oxen, now what Americanism consists of, but it is with the same load, the same distance; the distance traveled was twenty-three kilometres something about foreigners, and something about the Pope. When the brethren make up put into a wagon loaded with 10,000 pounds of their minds to stick to the issue, and open upon it, perhaps we shall find out the latest revised the same load. We hereby admonish all the brethren on this subject, and if they don't heed our admonition, we shall lodge a complaint of their mean conduct before the next National Council, and have some definite action in the premises. Of course, Democrats will write about other things, think about them, and talk about them; but the Know-Nothing organs ought not to be seduced into following off their opponents into the wilderness of questions that Democrats are in the habit of discussing. If the faithful don't resist the temptation to desert their fort, they will never stick to the issue in this world or the next. We say, then, to all the organs, stick to the issue. There are now three horrors, slavery, foreigners, and the Pope. The Black Republicans have the first named in all their writings and speeches; the Know-Nothings have the care of the two last named hobgoblins, and resolve to stick to them, and expect great success by it; and let us know how they can scare us with them; and etraightway they are off after every other irrelevant question that idle people talk about. We are ashamed of such performances after such promises. The Democracy want a respectable opposition, and will have to get up one themselves if these Know-Nothings don't do better and heartily If we laughed more we should be better, and f we were better, we of course should be hapier, but hear what an older man says in regard

The Rev. Dr. Bellows, of New York, recently delivered an excellent address on mirth, in the course of which he remarked:

"For my own part, I say it in all solemnity, I have become sincerely suspicious of the piety of those who do not love pleasure in any lorm. cannot trust the man that never laughs; that s always sedate; that has no apparent outlets for natural springs of sportiveness and gavety that are perennial in the human soul. I know that nature takes her revenge on such violence. expect to find secret vices, malignant sins, or norrid erimes springing up in this hot-bed of confined air and imprisoned space; and therefore it gives me a sincere moral satisfaction any where and in any community, to see innocent pleasures and popular amusement resisting the religious bigotry that frowns so unwisely upon them. Anything is better than dark, dead, unhappy social life; a prey to ennui and morbid excitement, which result from unmitigated puritanism, whose second crop is usually unbridled license an infamous folly."

A Judicial Joke .- Judge Davies, of the New York Supreme Court, while holding a recent term in New York city, granted to Eckel and Mrs. Cunningham their prayer for trial before the next term of Oyer and Terminer, assignng the ease to his own April session. ist congratulating himself on thus having a capital case for trial, when "something hap-pened" which he little expected. The day for opening his Oyer and Terminer Court being stormy, he failed to arrive punetually from his residence in Fishkill, and Judge Roosevelt, one of his colleagues, and a resident of New York city, opened the court for him, and coolly adrned it to his own May term. to himself the Burdell case; and the bar and judiciary are indulging in a hearty laugh at Judge Davics' expense. Judge Roosevelt played a very similar game on his colleague Strong, and secured to his own docket the trial

PUBLIC SCHOOLS OF NEW ALBANY .- It will be seen from the following resolution, passed at the last meeting of the School Board, that the city schools of New Albany will in all probability be closed to-day:

Resolved, That in view of the present cm barrassed condition of our finances, the Board of Trustees deem it proper to close the public schools at the end of the present month, provided that the City Council do not at their next meeting provide means for their continuance and that the President of this Board be re quested to give official notice hereof to the President of the City Council.
